

IN THE CLAIMS:

Claims 1 to 20 (canceled)

21. (currently amended) A method for managing intellectual property rights in an intellectual property arising from one or more than one contract document, comprising the steps of:

packaging the one or more than one contract document and pertinent legal questions comprising one or more than one legal question pertaining to the intellectual property;

directing the review of the one or more than one contract document and the one or more pertinent legal questions;

~~and acquisition of acquired~~ acquiring responses to the pertinent legal questions; and storing the acquired responses in a database to permit searching the acquired responses.

22. (original) The method of claim 21 wherein the packaging step comprises the steps of:

initializing a management program and creating data records comprising one or more than one data record having information pertaining to the intellectual property;

generating the pertinent legal questions; linking the data records to the pertinent legal questions;

displaying a hierarchical tree representing the linkage between the data records and the pertinent legal questions; and routing the one or more than one contract document, the pertinent legal questions, and the data records to ~~the review~~ module a reviewer.

23. (original) The method of claim 22 wherein the generating step comprises offering choice of rights questionnaires, receiving a request for one or more than one rights questionnaire, and generating the one or more than one rights questionnaire requested.

24. (original) The method of claim 22 wherein the generating step comprises automatically generating one or more than one rights questionnaire based upon the information in the data records.

25. (original) The method of claim 21, further comprising, before the packaging step, preparing one or more than one rights questionnaire having one or more than one question designed to elicit critical information about ownership rights in intellectual property.

26. (original) The method of claim 21 wherein the directing step comprises sending the one or more than one contract document to a legal source for review and receiving acquired responses to the pertinent legal questions.

27. (currently amended) A method for managing intellectual property rights in an intellectual property arising from one or more than one contract document, comprising the steps of of for:
central processing and displaying ~~display~~ of information pertinent to the intellectual property;
posing legal questions pertaining to the intellectual property;

storing a management program used in the ~~central~~ processing and ~~displaying~~ ~~display~~ step, the management program performing ~~comprising~~ the steps of ~~for~~:

- packaging the one or more than one contract document and the legal questions;
- reviewing the one or more than one contract document;
- ~~and~~
- acquiring ~~acquired~~ responses to the legal questions;
- and
- searching the acquired responses.

28. (currently amended) A method for managing ownership rights in an intellectual property arising from one or more than one contract document, comprising the steps of, under the control of a user system:

- accessing a computer network;
- initializing a management program and creating data records and preparing a package having one or more than one rights questionnaire and the one or more than one contract document;
- routing the package for review, the rights questionnaire having one or more than one question; and
- receiving ~~a reviewed rights questionnaire having~~ responses to the one or more than one question and storing the responses in a database.

29. (original) The method of claim 28 further comprising the step of searching the responses stored in the database.

30. (canceled)

31. (new) The method of claim 21 wherein the step of directing the review further comprises prompting selection of one or more special format answers.

32. (new) The method of claim 26 wherein the one or more than one contract document and the pertinent legal questions are sent via email and the responses are received via email.

33. (new) The method of claim 32 wherein the emails are encrypted and compressed.

34. (new) The method of claim 28 wherein the step of routing the package for review further comprises prompting selection of one or more special format answers from pull-down boxes or radio buttons.